category number	impact category	Definition
1	Advancing Knowledge	This category includes discoveries/breakthroughs, contributions to the scientific literature (grey or peer-reviewed) and may include measures of research quality, activity, outreach and structure
2	Building Capacity	This category includes the development and enhancement of research skills in individuals and teams, additional research- activity funding (e.g., funding partnerships) as well as the development/enhancement of platforms.
3	Informing Decision Making	This category includes the impacts of health research in the areas of health related decision making (i.e., science/ research, general public, clinical and managerial decision-making, practice and policy and health products decision
4	Health Impacts	This category includes advances in the prevention, diagnosis, treatment and palliation as well as changing health status and determinants of health.
5	Health System Impacts	This category includes advances and efficiencies in the way the health system functions.
6	Broad Economic and Social Impacts	This category includes commercialization of research discoveries, human capital gains, health benefits (specific costs of implementing research findings in the broad health system), well-being and social benefit indicators.
Population C	Groups
	researcher population/sub-population
Canadian he	ealth researcher population/sub-populatio	n
Canadian po	opulation/sub-population
Data Source	25
Aboriginal A	ffairs and Northern Development Canada
Canadian Institute for Health Information (CIHI)
CIHR admin	istrative data (includes EIS, RRS)
end of grant	t reports internal EABD records
internal RKT	TE records
internal RPM	1 records
Observatoire des sciences et des technologies (OST)
Orgranization for Economic Development (OECD)
Statistics Ca	anada - Canadian Socioeconomic Databas	e
Altmetrics
Web of Scie	nce		