

Eric Champagne, PhD*Associate Professor, Public Administration at the School of Political Studies and Director of the Centre on Governance at the University of Ottawa

Eric Champagne, Ph.D., is Associate Professor in Public Administration at the School of Political Studies and Director of the Centre on Governance at the University of Ottawa. He teaches courses in theory and practice of public management and governance, program evaluation, research methods, public policy implementation, and globalization and continental integration. His current research focuses on multilevel governance in the financing and implementation of transportation, infrastructure, and the digital transformation of the public sector. In 2020, he won the Pierre De Celles Award for Excellence in Teaching Public Administration presented jointly by the Institute of Public Administration of Canada (IPAC) and the Canadian Association of Programs in Public Administration (CAPPA).