

Jennifer Feeney-Svab,
Director Mental Health and WellnessWellness and Mental Health

Jennifer Feeney-Svab, joined OCHRO as the Director for the Mental Health and Wellness in February 2021 to advance workplace mental health in the federal public service. Jennifer is a people-oriented person who most recently worked at ESDC as the Director of Strategic Policy in the Office for Disability Issues. She has also spent several years working in the field of evaluation and performance measurement at Health Canada and the Public Health Agency of Canada. She possesses an MBA from the University of Ottawa with a focus on health administration and a Bachelor of Science from University of Waterloo in Applied Health Sciences.