

Maria Barrados,
Executive-in-Residence at the Sprott School of Business at Carleton University, retired
Head of the Public Service Commission and Assistant Auditor General

Maria Barrados is retired from the Public Service of Canada. She was President of the Public Service Commission of Canada for 8 years, and prior to that served as Assistant Auditor General at the Office of the Auditor General of Canada.

Maria serves on a number of boards and advisory committees. Currently she is Treasurer of the Rothwell Heights Property Owners Association and Chair of Alterna Savings and past chair of Alterna Bank. She has maintained her research interests in audit, performance measurement, evaluation and statistical analysis and continues to write on these topics. She holds positions at Carleton University as Executive in Residence at the Sprott School of Business and as Adjunct Research Professor in the Department of Sociology and Anthropology.

She has a Ph.D. in sociology from Carleton University, M.A. from McGill University and Hons. B.A. from the University of Saskatchewan.